

Insider's Guide to

PHOENIX

The city of Phoenix—cultural center of the Valley of the Sun and well known for its “dry” heat. Incorporated as a city in 1881 when a few chuck wagons could still be found, today, food has taken a more permanent role. Phoenix has plenty to offer in terms of great restaurants—none of which are on wheels anymore. So, where does one begin? That’s where the Sonnhalter Insider’s Guide to Phoenix comes in. It’s our way of helping you find the city’s best restaurants, nightlife, the sights and of course, places to cool off.

We asked some of our Phoenix friends for their recommendations on the best places to sample some of the local cuisine—and not just the rattlesnake steak. We wanted those secret locales that only the locals know about. Because at Sonnhalter, we not only like to get our hands dirty...we like to get them greasy!

When you’re not convening at the convention center, make sure you have a little fun in the Valley of the Sun.

Downtown/Central Phoenix

The Arrogant Butcher

Bars, American (Traditional)
(602) 324-8502
www.foxrc.com/restaurants/the-arrogant-butcher

Buzzy restaurant turning out upscale New American comfort food in a stylish setting.

Blue Hound

New American
(602) 495-1111
www.bluehoundkitchen.com

A seasonal menu meets hand-crafted cocktails, all in a sleek, neighborhood joint atmosphere. Includes shareable plates and private dining options.

Café at Phoenix Public Market

Café
(602) 253-2700
www.phxpublicmarket.com/cafe

Incorporating produce and other ingredients from the adjacent Public Market, this casual urban hangout is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Carly's Bistro

Bistro
(602) 262-2759
www.carlysbistro.com

Local art, a popular brunch, well-made food and a killer happy hour all make Carly's a downtown mainstay.

Desoto Central Market

Grocery, Specialty Food, Delis
(602) 680-7747
www.desotocentralmarket.com

Hipster hangout offering eateries, a bar and a farmer's market all in a vintage warehouse space.

Durant's

Steakhouse
(602) 264-5967
www.durantsaz.com

This downtown institution, going strong since the 50s, is famous for its steaks and martinis. As the founder Jack Durant says: “Good friends, great steaks and the best booze, are the necessities of life!”

Harumi Sushi

Japanese, Sushi Bars
(602) 258-0131
www.facebook.com/Harumi-sushi-az-387119124751717

Vibrant sushi house with a casual ambiance, plus grab-&-go meals and bento boxes at lunch.

Lo-Lo's Chicken & Waffles

Southern, Soul Food
(602) 340-1304
www.loloschickenandwaffles.com

Down-home restaurant fixing up fried chicken and soul food accompanied by hearty sides.

Matt's Big Breakfast

Breakfast & Brunch
(602) 254-1074
www.mattsbigbreakfast.com

This place gets busy so expect a wait, but don't leave, it's the best breakfast downtown.

Noble Eatery

Cafes, Bakeries
(602) 688-2424
www.noblebread.com

Even before it served its first cannellini bean and crab open-face sandwich, this tiny, lunch-only destination for Italian-inspired soups, salads and wood-fired sandwiches in central Phoenix had food lovers buzzing. Namely because of the dynamic duo behind it: baker Jason Raducha of Noble Bread, whose creations have appeared in some of the best restaurants in town, and venerated Phoenix chef Claudio Urciuoli, formerly of Noca.

Pizzeria Bianco

Pizza, Italian, Sandwiches
(602) 258-8300
www.pizzeriabianco.com

Huge crowds congregate at chef-owner Chris Bianco's legendary Downtown pizzeria for unforgettable pies that are full of smoky flavor and crafted with attention to detail.

American
(602) 388-4874
www.binkleysrestaurant.com

With a new menu inspired by the best ingredients available and only 24 spots available every day, reservations are a must and go quickly at this culinary adventure led by Beard award-winning chef Kevin Binkley.

Dick's Hideaway

Bars, Mexican, Breakfast & Brunch
(602) 241-1881
www.richardsonsnm.com

Beware, there's no sign to indicate the strip-mall location of this local favorite, but the New Mexico-style Southwestern grub is incredible!

Mora Italian

Italian
(602) 795-9943
www.moraitalian.com

Finesse and bright flavors from Chef Scott Conant's open kitchen set this thriving restaurant apart. Make sure to try the Burrata appetizer, homemade pasta and the roasted white fish Orata.

Rokerij

Fish and Steak
(602) 287-8900
www.richardsonsnm.com

Dark and atmospheric...make sure to have a drink at the downstairs bar. The name means "smokehouse" in Dutch and it's the place to come commune with red meat and a Jack Daniels.

Southern Rail

Southern, American (New)
(602) 200-0085
www.southernrailaz.com

A nostalgic gastronomical journey inspired by the "flavors from the American south." Regional influences stretch from the coastal Carolinas of "low-country" cooking through the soulful belt of Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi.

Arcadia/Biltmore

Beckett's Table

American (New)
(602) 954-1700
www.beckettstable.com
