

Insider's Guide to

SAN ANTONIO

The city of San Antonio Remember the Alamo! But don't forget about everything else there is to see and do in San Antonio. The old mission/fortress in the center of town is the most visited site in Texas, but it's not the only destination here. From the towering Tower of the Americas to the city's famed River Walk, you'll find plenty of entertainment options in tony San Antonio.

For the upcoming trade show, we've put together the Sonnhalter Insider's Guide to San Antonio. It's our way of helping you cut through the clutter to find the city's best restaurants, shows and sights.

We asked some of our friends in the Lone Star state for their recommendations on the best places to sample some of the city's cuisine—and not just its delicious Tex-Mex. We wanted those secret locales that only the locals know about. Because at Sonnhalter, we not only like to get our hands dirty...we also like to get them greasy.

So, when you're not convening at the convention center during the show, make sure you get out and get a real taste of San Antonio.

Downtown/River Walk

Biga on the Banks

New American
(210) 225-0722
www.Biga.com

An elegant respite from the "tourist traps" downriver. Legendary chef-owner Bruce Auden lures "business" types and "out-of-towners" with artistic plates and pitch-perfect service.

Boudros

Texas Bistro
(210) 224-8484
www.Boudros.com

It's contemporary cuisine with a cutting edge featuring the flavor of its regional heritage with a distinctive menu of Texas and southwestern specialties.

Casa Rio

Mexican
(210) 225-6718
www.Casa-Rio.com

The first restaurant on The San Antonio River Walk—founded in 1946. Featuring great Mexican Food and one of the best River Walk locations in San Antonio.

The County Line

BBQ
(210) 229-1941
www.CountyLine.com

Beefy portions of Texas slow-smoked BBQ—succulent brisket, ribs, sausage, chicken and even peppered turkey breast—all served at ridiculously low prices.

Dick's Last Resort

Pub Food
(210) 224-0026
www.DicksLastResort.com
